Gentlemen:

Of the ten address-plates received from you today, I am returning herewith five for correction. Please note that it is preferable to omit letters and figures given you for insertion on the right-hand side than to print part only to the confusion of our records. 'British Museum' is a title and does not require a comma between the two words. The name 'MacMahon' is distinctly one word and there should not be a space between the 'Mac' and the body of the word. Your abbreviations on the last plate are not permissible. Please make this -

Gentlemen:

Herewith I am returning two plates received from you today. One of these was sent in duplicate, the other has already gone back to you once for correction. It seems to me that we are not asking too much, when we request you to have some one of intelligence handle our orders in the future.

The plate we are returning for correction, has as its third line 'Hellenic Studi~~ot~~', and the letters 'EXC' which should be on that line are omitted. In my letter of the 24th, I wrote this label out in full for your convenience, and am copying the following from that letter:

Mr. John Penope, Librarian,
Sec. for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies, EXC.
50 Bedford Sq., London, Eng.

Kindly be so good as to have 'Studies' spelt correctly on the new plate and not to omit the 'EXC.' on the third line. This latter is important for our records.

Gentlemen:

Under separate cover, I am returning to you today the seven plates received from you this morning. On reference to my letter of the 16th, which you have not returned with the stencils, you will note that there are certain letters or numbers, or both, to follow each name - these I have indicated on the cards returned. In that letter I specifically asked for plates without holders, and the holders have been sent, and I also requested you to 'follow copy' carefully in order to avoid the delay and annoyance of having to return the plates to you. On our last order, material had to be twice returned to you.

Please also make the following additional plate:

Dear Sirs:

I am returning one stencil from a number just received. This stencil should read as follows:

Numismatic & Antiquarian Society of Philadelphia
1520 Real Estate Trust Bldg
Philadelphia, Pa.

I don't mind your abbreviating Soc. and Phila., in the first line of this address, but Numismatic & Antiquarian must be written out in full, and please note the spelling.

/Very truly yours,

American Numismatic Society,

 New York, N. Y.

Gentlemen:

We are just putting into effect a quarterly inspection service for our customers in New York. Other office appliance concerns have been doing this for years very successfully.

We think perhaps we can help you get better work from your Addressograph, prolong its life and help you find more uses for it by having a factory trained inspector call periodically.

Our inspector will adjust, thoroughly clean and oil your machine, relieving your operator of these duties. He will also instruct any new operators when he calls so that they thoroughly understand its operation. In fact, he will find new applications if possible, so that your Addressograph will pay you larger dividends.

The rates are unusually small. They are only $4.00 per quarter for electrically operated machines, per machine and $3.00 per quarter for hand operated machines, per machine. For the larger automatic machines, special rates will be given, depending on the type of machine.

If this plan meets with your approval, just sign yes at the bottom of this letter and return it. There is no contract to sign and we would not want you to continue with this service if you were not entirely satisfied.

In any event, let us know what you think of this plan.

Yours very truly,

F. C. Albers/MC

Gentlemen:

Responding to your circular letter of July 28th, we do not care to avail ourselves of the offer embodied in that letter. We have a single small machine and are able to take care of it.

Very truly yours,
